Summary	I graduated high school in 2017 and interned with NASA Ames Research Center during that summer. After that summer, I studied at the University of Alaska Anchorage, and I am currently continuing my education at Seattle Central as a sophomore. While acquiring Washington residency I worked as a Deli clerk and obtained the Assistant Manager position in less than six months. After maintaining my full-time role for over a year, I moved to part-time and became an instructor for Coding with Kids for summer 2021 while continuing my education full-time.
